Application No. 255

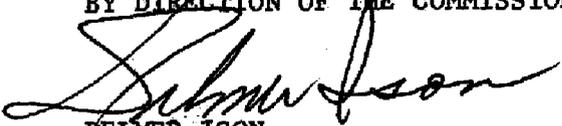

Docket No. 46

On November 8, 1963, intervenors, Local Divisions 689 and 1079, of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employes of America, AFL-CIO, filed a motion for rehearing or reconsideration of Order No. 316 wherein the Commission, among other things, authorized D. C. Transit System, Inc., to acquire control, through stock ownership, of the W. V. & M. Coach Company. Specifically, the intervenors seek reconsideration of the "matters contained in its (Commission) decision and order regarding 'employee relations'."

The Commission carefully considered the issue raised by the intervenors in their motion for reconsideration in rendering its original decision. The intervenors have not advanced any arguments or reasons in support of their position which have not been adequately and carefully considered by the Commission.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the motion of the intervenors, Local Divisions 689 and 1079, of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employes of America, AFL-CIO, for rehearing or reconsideration be, and the same is, hereby denied.

BY DIRECTION OF THE COMMISSION:

DELMER ISON
Executive Director
