Application No. 256

Docket No. 49

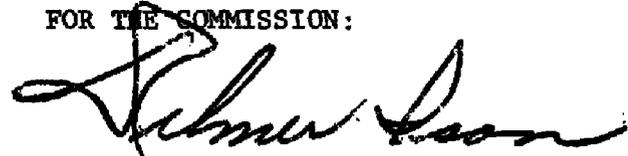

By Order No. 298 issued August 21, 1963, the two applications were consolidated for hearing and decision. The hearings have been concluded. The Applicant has orally requested that the presiding officer issue a proposed report. The motion is without objection. The Commission is of the opinion that the motion should be granted.

Certain protestants, namely, A. B. & W. Transit Company, Gray Line, Inc., Diamond Tours, Inc., and D. C. Transit System, Inc., have filed petitions to separate the applications for decision. The Commission is of the opinion that good cause has not been shown and that the petitions to separate should be denied.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. That the motion of the applicant be, and it is hereby, granted, and the presiding officer shall issue a proposed report.
2. That the petitions to separate be, and they are hereby, denied.

FOR THE COMMISSION:

DELMER ISON
Executive Director
