Irregular Route Operations )

Case No. AP-2000-71

By application accepted for filing August 11, 2000, Fowler Trio, L.L.C., a Maryland limited liability company trading as AAA Transport and All American Adventures and Tours, seeks a certificate of authority for irregular route operations in vehicles with a seating capacity of less than 16 persons only, including the driver. Applicant is licensed by the Maryland Public Service Commission (MDPSC) as Carrier No. 2275.

Applicant's president and sole shareholder, James S. Fowler III, also is the president and sole shareholder of Am-Van, Inc., a Maryland corporation trading as AAA Transport and All American Ambulance & Transport. Am-Van is licensed by the MDPSC as Carrier No. 1195.

In addition, Mr. Fowler is the president and sole shareholder of J & J Transportation, L.L.C., a Maryland limited liability company trading as AAA Transport and All American Transit. J & J Transportation is licensed by the MDPSC as Carrier No. 2429.

All three of Mr. Fowler's companies have applied for WMATC operating authority.<sup>1</sup>

Applicant proposes commencing operations with seven vehicles. Applicant's proposed tariff contains hourly rates.

This proceeding is hereby initiated to determine whether applicant is fit and whether the proposed transportation and common control are consistent with the public interest.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. That applicant shall publish once in a newspaper of general circulation in the Metropolitan District, no later than September 5, 2000, notice in the form prescribed by the staff of the Commission.

2. That applicant shall file with the Commission, no later than September 26, 2000, an original and four copies of an affidavit that notice has been published as required in the preceding paragraph.
