

BEFORE THE
WASHINGTON METROPOLITAN AREA TRANSIT COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, D. C.

ORDER NO. 210

Served October 15, 1962

IN THE MATTER OF:

Application of Holiday Tours, Inc.,) 8410 Wisconsin Avenue, N.W.,)
Washington 14, D. C., for a) Application No. 18 Certificate of Public Convenience) and Necessity.)

On August 15, 1962, the Commission issued Order No. 183, dismissing an application of Holiday Tours, Inc., for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, which was filed pursuant to the "grandfather" clause of the Compact.

Subsequently, Holiday Tours, Inc., filed an application for reconsideration of said Order.

Upon its own motion, after reviewing the record in this proceeding, the Commission is of the opinion that Order No. 183 should be set aside and cancelled, and all matters in the file except the application should be stricken therefrom, and the application itself reprocessed. This being done, the application for reconsideration becomes moot and therefore should be dismissed.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

1. That Order No. 183 be, and it is hereby, cancelled, set aside and held for naught.

2. That all matters in the file, except the original application and exhibits attached thereto, be, and they are hereby, stricken and shall be removed from said file.

3. That notice of the application be given in a newspaper of general circulation in the Metropolitan District, said notice to state a general summary of the authority sought in the application, and requiring any person desiring to contest the grant of all or any portion of the authority sought to notify the Commission and the applicant, in writing, within thirty (30) days of the publication of said notice.

4. As soon as possible after the thirty-day period set forth above, the Commission shall proceed to process the application in accordance with its rules of practice and procedure and regulations.

5. That the application for reconsideration be, and it is hereby, dismissed.
